Consent for Publication of Material Relating to Me in the Annals of Dermatology

I give my permission for all or any part of the material, including documents of health information, photograph, and video, to appear in the printed and electronic editions of the Annals of Dermatology and in other derivative works or products, and for the Annals of Dermatology to grant permission to third parties to reproduce the material.

Title or subject of article or photograph, video:
______________________________________________________________________________

Please check the following box after reading each statement.

☐ I understand that my name will not be published but that complete anonymity cannot be guaranteed.

☐ I have read the manuscript or a general description of what the manuscript contains and reviewed documents of health information, photographs, or video files (if included) in which I am included that will be published.

☐ I have been offered the opportunity to read the manuscript and to see documents of health information, photographs, or video files (if included) in which I am included, but I waive my right to do so.

☐ If I do not revoke this authorization, it will expire ten years from the date written below.

Signed ___________________________ Date ___________________________

Print name ___________________________

If you are granting permission for another person, what is your relationship to the person?
______________________________________________________________________________